Phil Clark

Bartlett High School, Bartlett, Tennessee

Phil Clark has been a head baseball Coach in Tennessee for over 30 years at Sky-View Academy, Germantown High School, and now at Bartlett High School. His teams' accomplishments have been extraordinary. His teams have won 20 District and 20 Regional Championships, 5 State Championships, and the National High School Baseball Coaches Association named his Germantown Team the number one team in the country in 1995.

Clark has won 853 games and received many coaching honors named the National High School Coach of the Year in 1995 by the NHSBCA. Phil was an assistant coach under Bill Olson with the USA Team and earned the respect of all the coaches and players because of his knowledge of the game, his ability to relate to the players, and for his untiring work ethic.

Phil is about giving back to baseball after an outstanding playing career at the University of Memphis helping his college team to the best season ever in his senior year finally losing to the University of North Carolina in the championship game in the NCAA South Regional Tournament in 1979.

Clark has been an active member of the NHSBCA giving clinic sessions at the annual convention (3), serving as the 2nd and 1st Vice-President before taking over the President's role in 2012. He has been a member of the NHSBCA's Executive Board representing the Southeast Region.
