

Criteria for BCA Hall of Fame

1. Must have been a member of the BCA for a minimum of 10 years*
2. Must have been a High School Baseball Coach for a minimum of 25 years
3. Must have been a Head Varsity Baseball Coach for a minimum of 20 years – in rare cases, the committee may permit a non-coach to be considered
4. Must have a winning percentage over .500 as a Head Varsity Baseball Coach
5. Must have contributed to the BCA in at least 2 of the following areas:
 - a. Served on a BCA Committee
 - b. Been a clinician at a BCA Convention
 - c. Written and had published an article in a BCA publication(s)
 - d. Held an Office in the BCA Organization
6. Must be in Good Standing with the BCA Organization
7. Must be nominated and proper forms sent to Hall of Fame Committee. No one will be automatically put into BCA Hall of Fame without proper paper work submitted.
8. A Minimum age of 55.
9. If after 3 years of not being selected, a nominee's name will be withdrawn until name is submitted again
Deceased coaches before 2001, committee will make special consideration*

Method of Selecting Inductees:

1. After collecting the list of nominations, background checks will be completed by committee members.
2. Attendance at BCA Convention(s) will be considered.
3. From the list of acceptable candidates, each member of the committee will rank nominees 1 to X (where X nominations with the highest number being the first choice).
4. These rankings will be sent and tabulated by the committee chair.

5. Tabulations will then be returned to the committee members.
6. The nominees will be voted on by the committee members at the next convention. The committee will select a maximum of 4 coaches to be inducted the following year in order of their ranking.
 - A. A nominee must be among the top four vote getters.
 - B. A nominee must be listed among top 5 on at least 4 of 7 ballots
7. Nominations will be in the BCA Office by August 1st of a given year. For the 2007-year, nominations must be in by June 1st, 2007.
8. There is a special category for a possible additional inductee for someone who is not a coach and does not meet the need of the normal criteria. This could be an injured or deceased person, or as a Jerry and Elaine Miles situation. To be considered under this special category the nominee must be a unanimous vote from all seven voting numbers of the committee.

Inductees will have to pay their own expenses to get to the convention. Site where induction ceremony will be held and the inductions will be the final part of Awards Dinner. Inductee's guests will be responsible for their own cost of their dinner.

Sponsored by Easton Sports

Rings by Jostens